Phoenix Astronomical Society Announces Annual Election Results

Phoenix: The Phoenix Astronomical Society at its end of year meeting and celebration, announced its leadership team election results. Members gathered on the campus of Paradise Valley Community College, where PAS conducts its monthly lecture series and telescope workshops, to celebrate another successful year and announce the election results. PAS was established in 1948, making it one of the oldest astronomy societies in Arizona.

Vice President Mark Johnston was the ceremony master of ceremonies as President Stu Brackney was away on vacation. Mr. Johnston introduced the leadership team to everyone during this mini pizza party celebration.

The new leadership team is:

Stuart Brackney President

Mark Johnston, Vice President

Chris Ford, Secretary

Richard Sauerbrun, Treasurer

Richard Meyers, Editor of the PAStimes

Damon Finell, Member at Large

Ruza Sabelja, Member at Large

Also introduced to the membership, the PAS Managers appointed by the president; Ed Skinner, Web Master; Andrew Stone, Star

Tours Manager; Richard Pipkin, Membership Manager, and Ruza Sabelja, Event Manager
